

How to “like” Integrity Exports

1. “Like” our website....

First, go to IntegrityExports.com:

Next, go to the bottom of the page:

Integrity Exports is a kabushiki kaisha (limited company) based in Osaka, Japan. We are a used car exporter that buys cars from Japan's car auctions following instructions from our customers via our online auction system.

When cars are bought, we arrange for their transportation to the export port, as well as handling all documentation and Japan-side customs requirements. We arrange either RORO or container shipping for the cars, shipping them to customers around the world.

You can find out more about Integrity Exports and our staff here. We are members of JUMVEA, our industry association, that describes us as "a most reliable trading firm in Japan". Our website privacy policy is here and if you ever have any questions about this website or buying used vehicles from Japan, please contact us here.

Ready to start bidding and buying? Click here...

There, just above the yellow contact information, you will see the Facebook “like” button. Click it, sign in to Facebook, and you have “liked” our website.

(There's also a Google “+1” button to the right of the Facebook button. Click that as well if you like.)

2. “Like” us on Facebook ...

First, go to our Facebook page (facebook.com/integrityexports).

Next, click the “Like” button you can see next to the title of that page.

That's it! You're done.

Thank you for “liking” us!